Over the 1,765 days since he was elected as your councillor, Simon has worked tirelessly for you, your area and your city

Voted to protect Green Belt from Council's Local Plan

Expanded Farmers Market, and boosted Council support for local businesses

Saved £1,000s on city's bills by insulating public buildings

Four new disabled parking bays at St Albans station

Successfully campaigned to save free disabled parking

Helped residents with numerous parking, planning and housing issues

Ended secrecy at Council by making all meetings public

Got Council to back more action for cyclists and walkers

Stopped Council charging mobile traders double fees

Led successful campaign to save Recycling Centre

Won funding for solar panels on three leisure centres, paid back with savings on bills

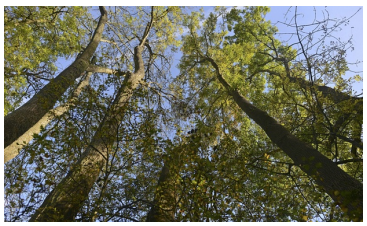
Pushed for more bus services, lower rail fares, and cleaner air

Backed residents' opposition to Ziggurat redevelopment

Got cycle parking hoops installed in Victoria Street

Launched Council's plan to help Syrian refugee families

Got St Albans' new electric taxi scheme on the road



Saved trees on Harpenden Road from being felled

Negotiated better terms for St Claire's home, Church Crescent

Switched Council plants to more perennials, saving cash

Supported residents who wanted 20mph zones

Don't lose your hardworking councillor. Re-elect Simon on 5 May